

WICKED QUEER

THE 32nd BOSTON LGBT FILM FESTIVAL
March 31 - April 10, 2016

We are pleased to announce the screening of two Italian movies during
The 32nd Boston LGBT Film Festival – Wicked Queer!

ARIANNA (Dir. Carlo Lavagna)

Brattle Theater - April 4, 8:00 pm

Arianna is a teenager with emotional and physical insecurities who, unbeknown to her parents, embarks on a quest to discover her identity during a summer trip to the family holiday home on the shores of Lake Bolsano. This debut feature by Carlo Lavagna came out of a documentary he made on a real life case in Italy, but transposed the action to the everyday lives of a seemingly unassuming Italian family.

Presented at the 72nd Venice International Film Festival, Ondina Quadri has been awarded as Best Female Debut.

ME, MYSELF AND HER (Dir. Maria Sole Tognazzi)

Brattle Theater – April 7, 9:00 pm

Perhaps Italy's first romantic comedy with a female couple at the center, ME, MYSELF AND HER stars Sabrina Ferilli as happily out restaurateur Marina and Margherita Buy (from Tognazzi's previous A FIVE STAR LIFE) as Federica, a previously married architect whose fear of what others might think gives her pause about the relationship. With a light tone, this warm look at the everyday struggles of two people to build a life together strikes a universal chord.
